PITTSBURGH – On Monday, July 7, 2014 at around 2:50 p.m., a white male walked into the First Niagara Bank in Coraopolis and handed a teller a note demanding money. The teller gave the male money after which he fled down Mill Street. Video surveillance shows the suspect fleeing across 4th Avenue and running through the Coraopolis Cash Market parking lot towards 3rd Avenue.

The suspect has been identified as 23-year-old Jeffrey Schrott (picture below). Schrott's last known address was in the 1100 block of 3rd Avenue in Coraopolis. He recently moved to that residence from Neville Island. Schrott has a previous bank robbery conviction for a 2011 robbery of the Citizens Bank at the Kennedy Township Giant Eagle.

An arrest warrant has been obtained for Jeffrey Schrott for the July 7 bank robbery at the Coraopolis First Niagara Bank. Schrott also has two bench warrants, one for a probation violation and the other for failure to appear at a court proceeding.
